Great and Useful Invention,

No more Mortality for want of Water. Sure wealth to Estancieros

By the Robert Apparatus.

Being notorious the immense injury occasioned by the scarcity of water during the long (very) dry time the campo of Buenos Ayres, I have determined to dedicate to the Estancieros an Apparatus at once simple and infallible for procuring as much water as they may require.

120 Bordaleses per hour (5 cents fabulous) is more than my apparatus, without fear of at any time its getting out of order.

This machine is worked by one horse and can do the work give 120 Bordaleses; that is to say, sufficient water for 20,000 head of cattle.

By these figures can be calculated the immense advantages gained by its use.

Another advantage is the facility of putting it together and taking it to pieces, so as to be able to transport it to any place where it may be necessary to use it, after for watering purposes or others.

GREAT MODIFICATION.

I have made an improvement in my Apparatus, applying a new system which reduces the necessary force two thirds, giving it at the same time more rapidity.

Those interested can see it at Calle Moreno, No. 346 (Hennerado, Paris).

One sole inspection of the Apparatus will prove to them the superiority of it over any other. ROBERT.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1863.

THE CONGRESS ELLCTIONS.

On Sunday the elections came off and all irritation of party spirit seemed to have evaporated in the club. The Crudos submitted to a disgraceful defeat with great resignation, and thanks to the prudent measures taken by Pres Mitre, the much dreaded day came and went without bloodshed.

At the Merced church, the scene of the December riots, not a harsh word was heard, and General Nazar with an escort of four officers and four soldiers, visited his outposts without sighting a single enemy to public order. A large majority for the Cocidos showed that the authors of the former disturbances did not represent the prevalent party in this parish.

Mr. Billinghurst had never had so quiet a day's work at the College porch, and his efforts in favour of the sot-disant national party were crowned with a victory of 200 votes to spare.

San Miguel also pronounced in favor of the Cocidos, without any attempt at disorder. San Nicolas gave 22 of a Cocido majority, the numbers being nearly even.

At Concepcion the Cocidos counted 29 more than their adversaries. San Telmo gave just the same majority for the Crudos. The Recoleta was also in favour of the latter.

Balvanera was one of the few scenes of disturbance. One Colonel Garcia, a resident of Belgrano, attempted to vote, but was objected to by a parishioner, whom he, therefore, insulted with the epithets of 'cut throat,' &c. Commissioner Sosa decided that Garcia could not vote, and obliged him to retire. In this parish the 'crudos' won by a large majority, owing to Garcia's efforts.

Socorro was also riotous, D. Mateo Martinez taking on being admitted, although not a parishioner. Colonel Sosa prevented him, whereupon he drove off to the Recolets, and being reinforced by three others, attempted to get out of his coach, but was vigorously repulsed, and obliged to withdraw. The Commissary-General, Alsina, who was attacked by Colonel Forrest, but the former was protected by his friends; a great majority resulted for the 'cocidos.'

The only serious row was at the Piedad, where Colonel Martinez played an active role, although not a parishioner, as required by law. D. Adolfo Alsina was also in the frasca under the same circumstances, but drove off in his coach before it ended. A black soldier, stated to be drunk, was struck by some one, recalling the parishioners' cut throats, whereupon the row began, and Colonel Mateo Martinez was unfortunately stabbed with a penknife in the side, and very much knocked about. Commissioner Sosa probably saved his life, by riding up at this conjuncture and clashing aside the mob. The 'cocidos' last gained.

Barracas (N.) was very quiet, and the Cocidos won. The total result in this city is approximately thus: Cocidos 1250; Crudos, 900. It will be seen that not quite two-thirds of the registered citizens voted, probably fearing for their personal safety, but Sunday's was the first legal election in B. Ayres for many years past.

The suburbs have nearly all declared for the Cocidos. Flores, Merlo, Lomas, and elsewhere have demonstrated in the evening to congratulate the victory with shouts of 'Viva Mitre!' Ulti camp returns not being yet known, it is impossible to state the actual result but the chances are now 10 to 1 for the Cocidos.

The Crudos have also won in Gahuelas, Chivilcoy, Capilla del Señor, Exaltacion, and San Justo. The Cocidos had won in San Vicente, and Zarate, but up to this none there are no official returns.

FIRE-UP.

There is some talk of getting up a society of 'bomberos' to be supported by the merchants and people in general. There are proposed to be four companies, each with a separate district and engine, and to be composed of fifty-three men. The founding of engines, three men. The founding of engines, three men. The idea is very simple, but there is one drawback to the scheme, and that is want of water. A great portion of the city would be burned down before water could be obtained from the river. Supposing a fire were to take place five squares from the river, of what good would four engines be? It would require that number to keep a constant stream of water on the fire. One of the four would require to be in the river, and in less than half an hour it would be almost useless, from its suction-hose being choked with sand.

Another serious drawback to the plan of four engines would be supplying them, if, that in case of a large mob having collected, so as to facilitate robbery, the hose were cut directly.

To make the fire companies of any real service, it is necessary that supplies of water be placed all over the city, and connected by pipes with hose with plugs. In other countries, where fires are prevalent and water scarce, every house is generally attached to the fire brigade two companies, one of 'hook and ladder,' and the other 'guardia de propiedad.' These two bodies of men are wholly devoted to saving property from the burning buildings, and looking after its safety, when rescued, from robbery.

We would humbly suggest to the proposers of this scheme, the propriety of obtaining an official order for the immediate closing of those of the public and theatres, as much for the safety of their own men as for that of the public, because few 'novato' men care to enter a burning building, except their nerves be of escape are sure and certain, which they can never be, so long as the doors are liable, as now exist, to close in such a manner as to render the egress quite impossible. We have seen men who would not hesitate to enter a burning house by the door of egress, wrapped up in a blanket, shortly refuse to enter with the 'nozzle,' until the door had been cut down to allow the operation, however expert the men may be with their hatchets, takes up some time.

MONTEVIDEO.

Assassination of Mr. Newman.

The rebel party cannot be wholly exonerated from atrocities, as its advocates pretend. We read in the "Republica" (Feb. 10th.) a letter of the 8th (4th inst.) announcing the murder of Mr. John Newman, a respectable German resident, by one of Flores' soldiers, at San Eugenio, on the 31st December last. Deceased had received ten stabs, and the assassin was seen in the act of plunging his knife into the deceased's sealed breast in his shirt. Immediately Mr. Gustavo Wilde summoned the neighbours to seize the murderer who very quickly came on to Dragones with Newman's horse and pistols in his possession. The Justice of Peace, appointed by Flores, refuses to say that he was shot on the following day.

A police edict is published ordering all persons entering or leaving Montevideo to do so by the Calle 18 de Julio. Some parties have been lately seized, others released; among the former are Diego Trigo and Bonifacio Caraballo is said to have crossed the Santa Lucia and reinforced Flores on Sunday. The mails from Mercedes and Colonia were seized by the rebels at Paso de Molina. Firing was heard off the coast on Saturday night in the direction of Punta Yeso. The Peruvian steamer was hourly expected with Col. Olid, who is coming to aid President Flores.

Letters from Yaguari and Artigas state that the rebel generals Fidelis and Borges are on the frontier, having received 1,000 rifles and 2 cannon, captured in a recent defeat (?). The commander in Rocha writes (Feb. 7th) that Gabriel Saravia is to be executed, and the garrison of the place only 1 0 strong.

Lucas Moreno, despatched to the Generalissimo at Montevideo, Antonio Diaz, states that on the 10th inst. 20 rebels made an advance on the bridge of Paso Molina, obliging him to retire. Next day a body of 300 made a reconnaissance near Paso Molina, supported by a column of 800 men, which however thought proper not to face. Another division of 200 came down on the Cerrito, but afterwards retired, with a loss of 24 horses, which fell into the hands of Major Quijano, of the Government forces.

President Berro, by decree February 12th, has declared Montevideo and the suburbs under strict martial-law, all the courts of justice being closed. The theatres, however, are still open. Frederic Donnelly, an Argentine citizen, has been sent to the pontoon a prisoner.

The 'Comercio,' of Saturday, in a stop press, announces that Flores has retired to Arroyo Man-o, distant four leagues, with his entire army of 800 men, having given up all hope of mounting Montevideo. The Government picquets made excursions to Tablada and Union without meeting any rebel force.

This news is very improbable, as latest reports show that the city was still closely invested, and it was even rumoured had fallen into the hands of the besiegers.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The elections passed off as quietly as a Flower-show. The greatest politeness prevailed at the various polling-booths, and the commissioners patrolled the streets as if on parade. The result contrary to our expectation, was a complete victory for the 'Cocidos.' Two old men were taken to the Policia for being unable to walk without a stick, and we have heard of two persons slightly injured.

Hector F. Varela now takes up the Tribuna, and as D. Mariano has been unfortunate in the elections, it is likely he will take a trip to Jerusalem as 'absent friend,' while his brother un furls quite an opposite political banner to the torn one of 'Crudos.'

The opera of Norma to morrow night at Colon will probably attract a full house. Mme. Parodi Co. gains great laurels, and this is a favorite opera with Englishmen.

The mail brings news of some illustrious deceased. Besides the novelist Thackeray, are Lord Charlemont, aged 84 years, the Dean of St. Patrick's, and Bishop Wilberforce, killed by a fall.

We give a report of the city elections: also a list favoured us by a 'crudo,' showing some camp returns which quite turn the balance in favour of the 'crudos.'

ENGLISH NEWS.

According to existing arrangements, the Queen will return to Windsor Castle on February 11th.

The Queen has held a Privy Council at Osborne in the second week of January for the purpose of selecting a day for opening Parliament and issuing a proclamation summoning both houses to meet for the despatch of public business.

The Board of Trade returns for the month and eleven months which terminated on the 30th of November last were issued on Tuesday. According to these returns with those for the corresponding periods of 1862 we find that during the eleven months the trade of the country has flourished to an extent which is as cheering as was unexpected. The declared value of the exports in November, 1862, was £7,778,970; in November, 1862, it was but £9,767,000. In the first eleven months of 1863 we exported goods of the declared value of £132,000,000; in the corresponding period of 1862 the amount was only £113,000,000.

A commercial correspondent directs attention to the fact that the stock of cotton in Liverpool on Jan. 1st, 1864 was upwards of 600,000 bales less than December 31st, 1862, while present prices are nearly quadruple those of seven years ago.

Parliament shows a majority in favour of Lord Derby of fifteen votes. In point of fact, there is strong reason to believe that when the Whigs will again arrives, as soon it will, the Whigs will be driven out by a majority even larger than this.

During the week which ended on December 19, there was an increase of 2046 in the number of persons receiving public relief in the Lancashire manufacturing districts under the inspection of Mr. Commissioner Farnall.

A Mass was celebrated yesterday by Mayor of Liverpool by the National Polish League, requesting his worship to convene a public meeting for the purpose of petitioning Parliament to take steps to liberate Poland from Russian thraldom and oppression; and similar petitions were agreed to be addressed to the Mayors of Manchester and Birmingham. These proceedings were followed by a meeting of sympathizers to a grand demonstration in London, immediately prior to the meeting of Parliament. Lord Campbell has promised to bring the question before the House of Peers; and Mr. Hennessy will probably undertake a similar task in the House of Commons. We may mention that the National Polish League is an English organisation, and counts amongst its promoters and supporters many gentlemen of both houses of the legislature.—Liverpool Mercury.

LONDON, BUENOS AIRES AND RIVER PLATE BANK.

The first ordinary general meetin of the shareholders in this bank was held on the 18th Dec., at the London Tavern; Mr. H. Bruce, chairman, presiding.

The Secretary (Mr. A. B. Sanders) having read the advertisement convening the meeting, the seal of the company was affixed to the register of transfers and the share list, and the following report was read:—

"This being the first ordinary meeting of the company, your directors have to report their proceedings since its formation, which consisted in obtaining the services of Mr. John Henry Green, who had been the manager partner in Buenos Ayres of one of the principal houses connected with the River Plate, to proceed to that city thither on the 8th October, 1862. Considerable delay and some difficulty necessarily arose in obtaining the legislation of our statutes by the Government of the Argentine Confederation, and which was effected by that of the province of Buenos Ayres. Much credit is due to Mr. Green for the very able manner in which he accomplished this, and your important object in time to enable him to open the bank for business on 22nd January, 1863, since which date the business has been successfully and daily bank now occupies a very high position as regards credit and general confidence. The board having considered it advisable to be represented by a managing director in Buenos Ayres to assist the manager with his advice and influence, they obtained the services of Mr. Edward Forde de la Riestra, the late Minister of Finance, to accept of that office. At a later date an agency was opened at Montevideo, and the branch bank now duly legalised by the Government of Banda Oriental. On 7th July, 1863, the agency was converted into a branch, under the management of Mr. J. Clement Ruding, formerly secretary to the company; and the progress made in the business during his residence, the directors, taking into consideration the caution that has been manifested necessary by the political disturbances of the country, have the directors have much satisfaction in assuring the shareholders that both branches at the latest dates were in a most satisfactory condition, prospects for the future, and that the increase of business fully proves the expendiency for their recommendation to the shareholders at the extraordinary meeting held in November, that the capital should be increased to £1,200, 000. The directors have much pleasure in that the whole of the new shares created at that meeting were taken up, except 632, of which a portion is held subject to the approval of the directors. The directors; the remainder will be held by the directors till a fitting opportunity occurs for their disposal for the benefit of the company. The premium arising from those new shares, amounting to £320,000 will be carried to the credit of reserve fund, as per agreement. The directors have now to present a statement of the accounts, which have been made up to the 31st December, 1863, and which the head office in London, also a statement of the profit and loss account, which shows that, after deducting £10,722 for the half-year's interest on capital, not then due at the branches, £1,000 in diminution of preliminary expenses, £2,000 for the depreciation of furniture, &c., and after providing for all bad and doubtful debts, there remains a net profit of £9,564 6s. 10d., out of which they recommend the sum of £4,000 to be appropriate to the reserve fund, £2,000, in addition to the £2,000 previous to the £2,000 previous to the £2,000 previous

MONTEVIDEO.

Now, twenty-four hours later than our last, informs us that the state of that capital can scarcely be more desperate than it is at present. The Government, seeing how fast it is losing ground, has again commenced persecuting the Colorados. Several more arrests have taken place, and the prisoners keen sent on board the Pontoon.

The state of siege is still maintained, and people are forbidden to meet in knots and crowds in the streets. An 8minute is feared daily.

Flores has taken up his quarters in the quinta of Iturriaga, and has there full command of the department of Montevideo.

The troops which are investing the city amount to 2,700 cavalry and 800 infantry. The rest of the army is waited for, before the final assault takes place. There does not seem to be the slightest doubt but that the city will be taken in case of an attack. We may now soon look for the beginning of the end.

RIVER PLATE PRODUCE

New York, Dec. 18.

The dullness in trade noticed in my last circular has continued, and no great improvement is anticipated until the new year commences. The great scarcity of mechanics interferes very much with manufacturers, and prevents the execution of orders for goods in as short time as is desirable. Money is easier, but is still higher than it was some months since; this, however, does not interfere seriously with legitimate trade.

Dry Ox and Cowhides—The arrivals since 20th November are as follows :—From Buenos Ayres, Emilia, La Plata, Concordia, Margherita, Newport and from Montevideo, Queen, Anna, bringing 91,041 dry, and 2,261 wet salted River Plate hides; from Rio Grande, Immanuel, Sophia Henrietta, bringing 16,018 dry, and 1,064 wet salted hides.

Sales four up 59,300 River Plate hides at 29 1/2, 29 1/4, 29, 28 1/2, 28, 28 1/4, 28 1/2, 29 cts. lb. nett cash; 15,000 Rio Grande hides, at 28 cts. lb. nett cash.

The transactions have not been large until recently, and there has been a slight advance in price, and some parcels sold to arrive.

The stock of leather is very light, and only for the difficulty of getting hides tanned, in consequence of the scarcity of labour and bark, there would be more activity at higher prices.

Wet Salted Ox and Cowhides Receipts—3261, River Plate, 1064 Rio Grande. Sales—2200 River Plate, 50 lbs. average, private terms, 46½ 3t G, 50lbs average, 14 1/2 cts lb. nett cash. Some of these parcels were sold to arrive. Cowhides are in demand for supper leather.

Dry Buenos Ayres and Rio Grande Kips—Only a few are reported sold. Good kips are in demand at near the price of hides.

Stock—The whole stock of dry and salted hides for sale, is importers and speculators hands is 23,000, and 124,000 are Buenos Ayres and Montevideo, 30,000 Rio Grande, and 21,630 all other kinds.

Horsehair—Imported since last circular—106 bales and 11 packages Buenos Ayres; 31 bales and 18 bags Rio Grande; of which all, but 67 bales of the BA, was for manufacturers' account. Sales are very trifling, and stock only 24 bales BA, and about 50, 00 lbs R G. Buyers are very willing to pay an advance on last sales, but importers do not feel anxious to sell at old prices.

Nutria skins—Receipts, 41 bales, of which 23 were for manufacturers' account. Sales, 13 bales, part at 100 cts lb 6 mos, and a few bales of an inferior heavy dressing skins at a reserved price.

Goatskins—Receipts, 86 bales heavy skins, which are reported sold at, or a trifle more than 55 cts per pound. No stock.

Deerskins—Receipts, 1 bale stag or ciervo skins, also 716 carpincho, or water hog skins. No sales reported.

Hide cuttings—No transactions.

Shin-bones—20,000 just arrived.

Ostrich feathers—No sales, and in demand.

Unwashed Mestiza Wool—Transactions are not large, footing only 581 bales mostly to manufacturers, at prices from 24 to 26 cts lb as in quality and condition. There has been no demand of consequence since my last circular. Some of the parcels purchased up in Europe have arrived, but the high cost of the most desirable will not enable them to be profitably placed in the present state of our market, which is now unusually dull.

Unwashed Montevina Wools—No transactions of consequence to report, market value for good condition 19 to 21 cts lb.

Unwashed Common Entre Rios, Rosario, San Nicolas, and Buenos A. Wools—No sales reported, I would quote a good article 17 to 18 cts. for Common Buenos Ayres, and 19 to 20 cts for Entre Rios.

Washed Cordova, Santiago, San Luis, and Mendoza Wools—Receipts 120 bales Cordova, and 475 cerrons Santiago. Sales—118 bales Cordova and 200 cerrons at 32-1/2 cts lb nett cash, and 260 cerrons Santiago, at 43 1/2 cts lb nett cash. Stock in first and second hands very small, and inward bills.

Rio Grande Wool—No stock of consequence, sales can easily be made at 40 cts per lb for washed common.

General Remarks on the Wool Market—The wool market has been for more than a month unusually quiet, and the cause of convenience has been made either to manufacturers or dealers. This state of inaction it is expected will continue until the middle of January, when the wants of the manufacturers will compel them to come into the market to obtain supplies. During the close of the year, many persons are engaged in taking account of stock and settling up their books, and until this work is arranged we suppose their attention will not be given extensively to purchasing of wool.

Exchange—Gold remained at 183 1/2 and 183 until 23d November, when it began to decline; and reached 143 on the 17th inst., again to 158 1/2 until the 7th inst., when it again declined, and has been fluctuating between 148 and 151 since, standing at 150 1/4 yesterday. Sterling Exchange has ranged from 108 to 110, to-day's rates yesterday Bankers' Bills Buying 104 1/2; Government Bonds 1881, 109; 7 3-10th Treasury Notes, 106 1/2; 5-20 years Bonds, by subscription, par, 1 per cent premium.

P. S. This morning, gold opened at 150, and has declined to 151.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Colon Theatre.—The masked ball announced for Sunday night, will not stop to by order of the police. However, not to force the conquered party of politicians to remain at home, notwithstanding the instability of ministerial affairs, and so as to detract their attention from their shattered hopes, the Italian Company have thrown open the breach of ennui, and gave a performance in the theatre.

Barbarous Atrocity—The Major Encargado at the attack on San Jose, was dangerously wounded, and fell into the power of the Blanco forces, who severed his head from his body, placed it on a lance and exposed to the public gaze in the plaza of San Jose. The Major was a most estimable and brave officer, which it says is received from a foreigner.

Mendoza.—A mutiny broke out among the troops at the 1st line, who rose against their officers, shouting "Down with the Unitarian savages." Probably it was put down by one or two of the mutineers shot. Seemingly the object they had in view was de-ertion, and this was principally got up by some Cordovese recruits.

Murders.—As scarcely a day passes without our having to record some blood-curdling or shocking case, we might almost be led to suppose that the great bulk of Argentine gauchos were corresponding members of a society started some years ago in London, whose object was to look on all sides of murder, and consider it as one of the fine arts. After much agitation and debating, the members unanimously agreed to the following result—which is at the disposal of the Argentine authorities—and whose knowledge is generally supposed to proceed from East to West, the good folks here may learn what the experience of the Eastern sages came to, and what they may look forward to, if murders are to increase in Buenos Ayres :—"From the best information which has been brought before and studied by the society for considering murder as one of the fine arts the members find that if a man once indulges in a little murder he soon comes to think nothing of theft, and then he descends to drinking, and from that—easy step, to sabbath-breaking and incivility."

Stampede, foaled in 1860, is a bay horse, with white star in the forehead, and with his off hind foot and part of the same hoof white; also his near hind foot slightly marked with white, but he has three black hoofs and a few white saddle marks. Stampede is by Orlando (bay) winner of the Derby; out of Stamp (bay), &c. for further pedigree see "Racing Calendar.") Stampede was bred at the royal paddocks, Hampton-court, and sold as a yearling for four hundred guineas to R. C. Naylor, Esq., Hootonhall, near Chester, by whom he was sold to S. R. Phibbs, Esq., Argentine Consul, Liverpool, to be shipped to Buenos Ayres by the royal mail steamer from Southampton on the 9th January, 1864, for W. C. Thompson, Esq., of Buenos Ayres.

Consul—Foaled March, 1862, is a beautiful dark bay colt without white, by Newminster (bay), out of Mincepie (dark brown, no white) by Faugh-a-Ballagh (dark brown) out of Espoir, by Liverpool, &c. (see "Racing Calendar"). Newminster is the celebrated sire of Consul; is one of the most fashionable and valuable stud horses in England, and has realized one hundred guineas each thousand, and two thousand guineas, were paid within a few weeks for a three-year-old, a two-year old, and a yearling, by first celebrated horse, while he is serving this year at 50 guineas a mare. Faugh-a-Ballagh, the sire of Hibilis (dam of Consul) was a winner of the St. Leger, and got by Sir Hercules. Consul (named since purchase) was bred by R. C. Naylor, Esq., of Hooton-hall, near Chester, and sold to S. R. Phibbs, Esq. Argentine Consul, Liverpool, to be shipped to Buenos Ayres by the royal mail steamer from Southampton on the 9th January, 1864, for W. C. Thompson, Esq., of Buenos Ayres.

Consul is sound in every respect, and is one of the best bred colts in or out of England; and if broken in and trained with care, quietness, and judgment, and encouraged in his growth by liberal feeding and exercise, he ought to give a good account of himself as a racer before being devoted to stud purposes.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA & C°.
No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —
BUENOS-AYRES.
The immense advantages of Accounts current are now so generally felt, and appreciated by the great majority of customs of the Ri er Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence
The Bank of Maua & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.
The same deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.
These advantages have no hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants o all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age in and of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other trivolities
The Bank of Maua and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.
The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.
The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the f rmer case the interest will be calculated up to date.
The Bank of Maua and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefits derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.
The Bank of Maua and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.
Buenos Ayres September 19th 1863.

Offices—87 calle SAN MARTIN.
The want has long been felt of an establishment wherein the frugal and laborious classes might deposit his savings, so as to incur no risk, and reap at the same time a good return.
This institution is calculated to answer such a purpose extending the benefits of its establishment to even the humblest classes
Public attention is, therefore, especially called to the manner of subscriptions, and the inversion of funds, according to the rules of the association.
The LA PREVISORA ARGENTINA will receive subscriptions as follows:
1st. On one's own life, in shares of $5 silver each. Those subscriptions liquidated at any time at the subscriber's time and option.
2nd. Without loss of capital by death of the insurer. Subscribers will be entitled to compound interest on their subscriptions and the proportional interest forfeited by the death of other shareholders in their Class, whose capital, however is returned.
3rd. With loss of capital and interest by insurer's death. All shareholders of this class shall gain compound interest on their subscriptions, besides a proportional part of the capital and interest of all who die in their Class.
All those subscriptions may be paid weekly, monthly, quarterly, half yearly, or yearly.
The capital of the Company shall be invested only in landed property (finca), and with the greatest security.
The Board of Inspection, composed of subscribers, shall have charge of all the operations of the Company.
For further particulars, apply at the Co's office 87 calle S. Martin (altos) between the hours of 11 — 4; prospectuses given on application. n17

BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS.
Watch and Clock Maker, by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.
Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clock and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.
"As a mode of illustrating the progress of watch work on a large scale, the collection of Messrs. Benson is one of the most remarkable in the Exhibition. Nothing could have been seen of the kind before. The Chronometer and Watch Work, with the various adjustments, is quite wonderful."—Morning Herald, June 11.
"The watch movements are of great interest, as showing the progress of watch work on a large scale. Messrs. Benson have exhibited, and which have been manufactured by them for the trade, and which are known as the London standard pattern watches. The movements are of the highest class, and are made with the greatest accuracy and finish. The Clock Movements are also of great interest, and will repay the trouble of examination."—Morning Advertiser, June 11.
"A triumph of ingenuity."—Telegraph, March 31, 1862.
"A more extraordinary display of finished workmanship could not be made than is presented by Benson, of 58, Old Bond-street, and 33 and 34, Royal Exchange. The movements of the various watches are of great interest, as showing the progress of watch work on a large scale. Messrs. Benson have exhibited, and which have been manufactured by them for the trade, and which are known as the London standard pattern watches. The movements are of the highest class, and are made with the greatest accuracy and finish. The Clock Movements are also of great interest, and will repay the trouble of examination."—Morning Advertiser, June 11.
